

Instruction sheet on handling certificates and documents and use of the logo/seal of the Technical Service Category C of GTÜ Certification GmbH

Our certificate and the seal can be used by our customers.

Our primary goal is to strengthen the trust that our customers and our customers' business partners place in our certification and our seal.

However, trust can only be achieved and maintained if our certificate and the seal are used correctly.

GTÜ Certification GmbH therefore pays particular attention to ensuring that its certificates and seals are used correctly and are not misleading or unfair.

The customer may not use certificates, CoP information, audit reports or similar that have been created as part of the audit or parts thereof in a misleading manner.

It is also misleading or unfair use if audit reports or other documents of the procedure are published incompletely and, for example, deviation reports are not mentioned.

If cases are identified that suggest misleading or unfair use, GTÜ Certification GmbH reserves the right to take measures to be taken by:

- Warnings,
- the ban on advertising with the certificate/seal

up to the

- Withdrawal of certificates can reach.

In addition, under the unfair competition act, warnings from so-called warning associations are to be expected.

To ensure that no problems arise when using the certificates, please note the following:

1. illustrations of the certificate must be complete.
2. Images of the certificate should be reduced to a maximum size so that the content of the certificate can still be read when viewed normally.

If, in exceptional cases, these requirements cannot be met for technical reasons, please contact us directly to discuss the presentation.

Advertising with the certificate is expressly only permitted during the period of validity of the certificate. In the interest of the certificate holder, proof of use must be kept. Furthermore, it is recommended that a responsible person is expressly appointed to release the relevant material with references to the certificate.

Should doubts arise in individual cases about the planned use of the certificate, other documents of the procedure or the logo/seal of GTÜ Certification GmbH, GTÜ Certification GmbH should be consulted.

At the request of GTÜ Certification GmbH, the customer is obliged to provide evidence of the use of the aforementioned certificates in business transactions.

If the holder of the certificate discovers that third parties are misusing or misleadingly using his certificate, appropriate steps should be taken immediately. GTÜ Certification GmbH must be informed at the same time.

In addition, the rules adopted by the responsible licensing authorities for the use of their logos apply.

Audit reports and certificates are the property of GTÜ Certification GmbH.

We ask for your understanding in the interest of all our customers.
